SABAN RENT-A-CAR, LLC,

Case No. CV 05-672-AA

Plaintiff,

v.

ORDER GRANTING PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

STEVE MILLER, individually and dba THE NEW CB SHOP, an unregistered
Oregon business,

Defendants.

This matter came to be heard on June 10, 2005, at 1:30 p.m., on the Court's Order to Show Cause Why a Preliminary Injunction Should Not Issue, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(b). The Court has considered plaintiff's Complaint, Motion for Temporary Restraining Order, Motion for Preliminary Injunction and memoranda and declarations in support thereof, and all other written submissions of the parties.

The Court, having reviewed the evidence submitted by the parties, considered the argument of counsel and defendants, and being fully advised, finds as follows:

PAGE 1 - ORDER GRANTING PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

1. This is an action to compel defendants to cease and desist all contact with plaintiff, particularly by, but not limited to, repeated and harassing telephone calls.

2. Plaintiff sought a preliminary injunction seeking to restrain defendants from contacting plaintiff and plaintiff's employees.

3. Plaintiff will suffer irreparable injury and loss in the event that a preliminary injunction is not granted.

4. Such injury outweighs any potential harm this order may cause defendants.

5. Plaintiff has demonstrated a likelihood of success on the merits.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

A. Defendants shall not contact plaintiff or plaintiff's employees by telephone or any other means; and

B. Defendants shall not contact plaintiff's counsel by telephone, but defendants may contact plaintiff's attorneys in writing and defendants' licensed attorneys may contact plaintiff's attorneys by telephone; and

C. This order will remain valid pending a trial on the merits of the above-entitled action, or until further order of this Court.

DATED this 10th day of June, 2005.
